

with the winning entries from the high school art contests held in other Congressional Districts, which will be on display in the Capitol tunnel. It is amazing to walk through this corridor and see the interpretation of life through the eyes of these young artists from all across our country.

Miranda McCully from Springdale High School was awarded second place for her graphite drawing "Breaking Free." Reanna Buzza from Springdale High School received third place for her graphite drawing entitled "Koala in Tree." Candice Kubican from Highlands High School was awarded fourth place for her marker composition "Frederick the Frog," and Ashley Guillary, also from Highlands High School, received the fifth place award for her silk painting "Pittsburgh."

In addition, Honorable Mention Awards were presented to works by Cassandra Finnegan of Springdale High School, Sarah Welsh of Baldwin High School, Elif Kizilkaya of the Pittsburgh Creative and Performing Arts School, Elizabeth Schaap of Brentwood High School, Dakotah Yaworski of Highlands High School, John Karp of Penn Hills High School, Roomel Reese of Penn Hills, Stephanie Taylor of South Allegheny High School, Kattie Jones of Brentwood High School, Emily Cotter of Springdale High School, Perri Murray of the Pittsburgh Creative and Performing Arts School, and Samantha Reiss of Sto-Rox High School.

I would like to recognize all of the participants in this year's 14th Congressional District High School Art Competition, "An Artistic Discovery:" from Highlands High School, Meagan Ekas, Ashley Guillary, Candice Kubican, Katherine McDonough, Cassie Olszewski, and Dakotah Yaworski; from East Allegheny High School, Adam Jacko, Shannon Nelis, and Thomas Randall; from Our Lady of the Sacred Heart, Evalynn Farkas, Alexia Janikowski, Pheobe Kristek, Rebecca Rodgers, Rachael Sarnowski, and Heidi Langhorst; from the Pittsburgh Creative and Performing Arts School, Lauren Brown, Maeve Gannon, Elif Kizilkaya, Adam Linn, Ethan Michaels, Perri Murray, and Arianna Williams; from Baldwin High School, Joseph Esposito, Alicia Mastroianni, Kayla Munizza, and Sarah Welsh; from Springdale High School, Reanna Buzza, Emily Cotter, Cassandra Finnegan, Sam Hieber, Miranda McCully, and Skylar Siciliano; from Penn Hills High School, John Karp, Witney Larko, Tyler Madden, Nevla Orsini, Roomel Reese, and Hamilton Rodkey; from Brentwood High School, Sydney Bauer, Kattie Jones, Samanta Sauro, Elizabeth Schaap, Shelby Stockline, and Taiyu Wang; from Riverview High School, Chandler Fescemyer and Jake Morgan; from Sto-Rox High School, Keirstin Bopp, Adam Gilchrist, Alanna Molter, Katelyn Parker, Samantha Reiss, and Cheyenne Simmons; from Woodland Hills High School, Brandywine Dugan, Miranda Miller, and La'tosha DeMaris Milton, and from South Allegheny High School, Amy Underwood and Stephanie Taylor.

I would like to thank these impressive young artists for allowing us to share and celebrate their talents, imagination, and creativity. The efforts of these students in expressing themselves in a powerful and positive manner are no less than spectacular.

I hope that all of these individuals continue to utilize their artistic talents, and I wish them all the best of luck in their future endeavors.

30TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE NATIONAL COALITION FOR THE HOMELESS

HON. EDDIE BERNICE JOHNSON

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, April 18, 2013

Ms. EDDIE BERNICE JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in recognition of the National Coalition for the Homeless as they celebrate their 30th Anniversary this month. The National Coalition is a network of homeless individuals, advocates, and service providers who are dedicated to meeting the needs of our most vulnerable segments of the population: homeless individuals and families.

The National Coalition was originally formed in 1982, in conjunction with various local and statewide homeless coalitions. Since the beginning, the National Coalition has worked tirelessly to increase access to safe, affordable, and adequate housing for any individual who so desires. While combating homelessness is a constant struggle, the National Coalition has fought diligently to facilitate a fundamental shift in our approach to addressing homelessness.

Under the leadership of Mr. Neil Donovan, Executive Director, the National Coalition has grown to become a leading organization in the fight to end homelessness. Mr. Donovan has used his knowledge and expertise in serving homelessness individuals to expand the reach of the organization, in order to meet the growing needs of those experiencing homelessness. The National Coalition has also been a strong advocate for the Congressional Homelessness Caucus by supporting its work in Congress to educate and mobilize Members of Congress and their staff.

Mr. Speaker, as co-chair and co-founder of the Congressional Homelessness Caucus, I am proud to honor the National Coalition for the Homeless for its worthy efforts to defend homeless individuals across the country. The National Coalition has made tremendous gains since its inception, and I truly believe in the goals that the National Coalition is trying to accomplish. I would like to congratulate the organization once again for achieving this historic milestone, and I look forward to maintaining our invaluable partnership.

CYBER INTELLIGENCE SHARING AND PROTECTION ACT

SPEECH OF

HON. MIKE ROGERS

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, April 17, 2013

The House in Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union had under consideration the bill (H.R. 624) to provide for the sharing of certain cyber threat intelligence and cyber threat information between the intelligence community and cybersecurity entities, and for other purposes:

Mr. ROGERS of Michigan. Madam Chair, I submit the following letters.

CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES,
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, COMMITTEE ON THE JUDICIARY,

Washington, DC, April 10, 2013.

Hon. MIKE ROGERS,
Chairman, House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence, Washington, DC.

DEAR CHAIRMAN ROGERS: I am writing concerning H.R. 624, the "Cyber Intelligence Sharing and Protection Act," which is scheduled for consideration in your Committee today. This bill contains provisions that fall within the Rule X jurisdiction of the Committee on the Judiciary.

As a result of your having made mutually agreed-upon changes to the provisions in question, and in order to expedite the House's consideration of H.R. 624, the Committee on the Judiciary will not assert its jurisdictional claim over this bill by seeking a sequential referral. The Committee takes this action with our mutual understanding that by foregoing consideration of H.R. 624 at this time, we do not waive any jurisdiction over subject matter contained in this or similar legislation, and that our Committee will be appropriately consulted and involved as the bill or similar legislation moves forward so that we may address any remaining issues in our jurisdiction. Our Committee also reserves the right to seek appointment of an appropriate number of conferees to any House-Senate conference involving this or similar legislation, and requests your support for any such request.

I would appreciate your response to this letter confirming this understanding with respect to H.R. 624, and would ask that a copy of our exchange of letters on this matter be included during floor consideration.

Sincerely,

BOB GOODLATTE,
Chairman.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, PERMANENT SELECT COMMITTEE ON INTELLIGENCE,

Washington, DC, April 11, 2013.

Hon. BOB GOODLATTE,
Chairman, Committee on the Judiciary, House of Representatives, Washington, DC.

DEAR CHAIRMAN GOODLATTE: Thank you for your letter regarding H.R. 624, the Cyber Intelligence Sharing and Protection Act. As you noted, elements of the bill fall within the jurisdiction of the Committee on the Judiciary. As you also noted, mutually agreed upon changes to the provisions in question were adopted by the Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence during its consideration of the bill, and we will be glad to continue to work with you on these provisions. We will also support the request of the Committee on the Judiciary for conferees in any conference that may occur on the bill.

I appreciate your willingness to forego consideration of the bill in the interest of expediting this legislation for floor consideration. I acknowledge that by agreeing to waive consideration of the bill, the Committee on the Judiciary does not waive any jurisdiction it may have over provisions of the bill or any matters under your jurisdiction. I will include a copy of your letter and this response in our Committee's report on H.R. 624 and the Congressional Record during consideration of the legislation on the House floor.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

Sincerely,

MIKE ROGERS,
Chairman.
